

CANADIAN MUSLIM PUBLIC AFFAIRS COUNCIL

Event Disclaimer

The organizers of the Sami Hamdi Palestine Speaking Advocacy Tour event hereby affirm their dedication to raising awareness regarding the Palestine cause. Our foremost objective is to cultivate heightened political consciousness and promote civic engagement within the community.

It is imperative to emphasize that the organizers staunchly condemn violence, hate speech, or any form of terrorism directed against any specific group or individuals, irrespective of their background. The organizers maintain a commitment to peaceful dialogue and advocacy, as well as upholding the principles of free speech and expression within the bounds of respectful discourse.

Furthermore, all statements or claims presented during this event are intended for the purpose of facilitating discussion and increasing awareness. The organizers do not endorse or authenticate any specific claims without independent verification. Attendees are encouraged to critically evaluate the information provided and seek additional sources for validation.

Additionally, while the perspectives shared during this event may align with certain positions of the Canadian Muslim Public Affairs Council (CMPAC), it is essential to note that not all viewpoints expressed are necessarily endorsed or representative of the entirety of CMPAC's stance on various issues. CMPAC's official positions are represented only on their official website www.canadianmuslimpac.ca.

For precise definitions and further clarification on specific terms or positions that may be used, please consult the accompanying document provided herein as an addendum, "From the River to the Sea: Palestine will be Free: A Primer on History, Context, and Legalities in Canada," prepared by Hearing Palestine Initiative and University of Toronto dated December 18, 2023, accessible online at <https://palestinestudies.artsci.utoronto.ca/from-the-river-to-the-sea-palestine-will-be-free-a-primer-on-history-context-and-legalities-in-canada/>.
